

The Christian Science Sentinel
Institutional Bulk License for Print Distribution

Date: _____

Background

The Christian Science Publishing Society (“CSPS”) publishes under copyright a weekly periodical in various editions in English entitled “Christian Science Sentinel” (“Sentinel”). CSPS desires to license the right to reproduce and distribute print copies of said Sentinel (“Copies”) to the holder of this license (“Licensee”).

The identity of the Licensee, the estimated average number of Copies that the Licensee anticipates reproducing on a weekly or another periodic basis, the duration of the license period, and the fee in connection therewith are set forth in the details sheet (“Details Sheet”), attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, as may be amended from time to time, which should be read in conjunction with this license (“License”) as setting forth the complete terms of the agreement between the parties.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises hereinafter set forth, the parties enter into this License.

1. Grant of License.

(a) Subject to all the terms and conditions of this License, and in consideration of the Fee payable by Licensee hereunder, CSPS grants to the Licensee a nonexclusive license to reproduce and distribute the number of licensed print Copies in the Territory and for the Purpose set forth below as follows:

(i) This License permits the Licensee to print or have printed the estimated average number of Copies of any specific issue of the Sentinel. Should the Licensee determine that it would like to change the estimated average number of Copies at any time during the Term of this License, the Licensee should contact CSPS to request such change, which, if approved, will be documented in a revised Details Sheet.

To enable the Licensee to obtain copying services on an ongoing basis without excessive administrative paperwork, copy shops (e.g., Kinko’s) are hereby authorized to make Copies in quantities equal to or exceeding the estimated average number of Copies set forth in the Details Sheet as may be requested by the Licensee.

Because the Licensee's anticipated number of weekly Copies may fluctuate over time or the Licensee's activities may not require making Copies every week, it will be sufficient for billing purposes for the Licensee to provide, at the outset, a reasonable estimate of the average number of Copies needed on a monthly basis. The Licensee agrees to use reasonable efforts to record the number of Copies actually made on a monthly basis and to share that information with CSPS on a calendar-quarterly basis. Should the Licensee determine that it would like to change the estimated number of Copies at any time during the Term of this License, or if the weekly average number of Copies made changes such that the then-current estimated number of weekly Copies is no longer reasonably accurate, the Licensee agrees to contact CSPS, and CSPS shall have the option to adjust the licensed quantity and Fee accordingly.

(ii) Territory: Please see the Details Sheet.

(iii) Purpose: It is understood by the parties that this License is intended to permit the Licensee only to reproduce and distribute Copies of the Sentinel, either at no cost to the recipients or on a cost recovery basis in the Licensee's discretion, for sharing in a context in which it is not reasonably practical for the intended recipient(s) to each have personal subscriptions to the Sentinel. In this way, this License represents an intentional modification by CSPS of its standard requirement of individual subscriptions to the Sentinel. For the purpose of this License, such contexts only include sharing Copies of the Sentinel with incarcerated persons. The Licensee understands and agrees that such Copies are not to be shared on an ongoing basis with individuals who are reasonably capable of maintaining their own subscriptions.

(b) This License does not authorize reproductions, distributions, performances, or displays of the Sentinel in any language, format, or media for any purpose other than as specified herein or of any Copies of the Sentinel dated later than the date of the last authorized issues as set forth in the details sheet.

(c) This License authorizes the Licensee to reproduce print Copies of the Sentinel exactly as published by CSPS, without omission, alteration, or addition thereto; provided that the Licensee may discreetly include a notice that the Copies are being provided by the Licensee "under license from The Christian Science Publishing Society," which notice may also include contact and other appropriate information about the Licensee.

2. Fee.

The Licensee shall pay to CSPS a license fee ("Fee") in connection with the rights licensed hereunder. The Fee shall be invoiced in arrears and payable in accordance with CSPS' stated billing process on a continuity (subscription) basis. CSPS reserves the right to change the fee structure in connection with this License on at least 90 days written notice to the Licensee.

It is understood that the Fee will be based on the estimated total number of Copies to be made per month during the Term.

3. Identity of Publisher and Acknowledgment of Copyright.

The Copies shall retain all copyright, trademark, and publisher information and indicia as originally published by CSPA.

4. Trademark License.

Other than as embodied in the Sentinel as published by CSPA, no license of any kind is granted to the Licensee hereunder to use CSPA's trademarks, including, without limitation, The Christian Science Sentinel trademark and the Cross and Crown seal.

5. Restrictions on Distribution.

The Licensee may distribute Copies in the Territory and for the Purpose described above. Copies may not be distributed through Christian Science Reading Rooms.

6. Financial Responsibility.

The Licensee shall assume responsibility for all costs, liabilities, taxes, employment obligations, if any, and all other obligations arising from the Licensee's contracts or actions. The Licensee shall ensure that all of its activities under this License are conducted in compliance with all local, state, and national laws. CSPA shall not assume liability, financial or otherwise, in connection with the production, distribution, or fulfillment of the Copies. The Licensee understands that the Fee payable to CSPA hereunder is only in consideration of the license granted herein to produce and distribute the authorized Copies and does not include any costs of obtaining the print copies or digital files of the Sentinel to be used in making Copies, or any costs of actually making or distributing the Copies, all of which are the sole responsibility of the Licensee.

7. CSPA Contact.

Unless otherwise notified, the Licensee shall address all notices or other inquiries to CSPA to the attention of:

Journal, Sentinel, Herald
The Christian Science Publishing Society
210 Massachusetts Avenue, P03
Boston, MA 02115 U.S.A
Email: contact@jshonline.com

8. Term and Termination.

The term (“Term”) of this License shall be effective as of the first issue date set forth in the Details Sheet. If this License is a one-time agreement, the Term hereof shall expire as of the end of the week of the last issue date set forth in the Details Sheet. Should the parties desire to extend the Term thereafter, a new Details Sheet shall be issued reflecting such extended Term.

If this License has an ongoing duration, this License shall continue until either party terminates this License for any reason on at least 30 days prior written notice. Any breach or default by the Licensee under this License shall entitle CSPS to terminate this License immediately and to recover from the Licensee any amounts due or in arrears.

9. Complete License/Assignment.

This License, together with the Details Sheet, sets forth all the terms and conditions of this License and, with the exception of a revised Details Sheet reflecting a changed number of authorized Copies, may only be modified by a writing signed by both parties. Neither this License nor the preparation of the Copies may be sublicensed or assigned without the advance written consent of CSPS. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Licensee may authorize one or more of its employees, agents, or affiliates, to make copies under the authority of this License; provided that the Licensee shall do so in a written document specifically naming the holder of such authority and specifying that copies may be made under such authority, such that a copy shop would be able to reasonably rely thereon. In the event of the transfer by sale, merger, reorganization, or consolidation of the Licensee, this License will terminate, and the Licensee’s successor must negotiate a contract directly with CSPS.

10. No Personal Liability.

The Licensee agrees that, inasmuch as CSPS is not a corporation (it is a trusteeship under the laws of Massachusetts), neither the currently existing nor any successor directors, trustees, officers, employees, or agents of The Christian Science Publishing Society, or the First Church of Christ, Scientist, has assumed personal liability for the performance of or failure to perform any term or condition contained in this License and must not be personally liable therefor. The Licensee agrees to look solely to The Christian Science Publishing Society itself for satisfaction of its obligations under this License.

11. Applicable Law.

This License shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts without regard to choice of law principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals on the date set forth above.
